NOTE WORTHY—2/11/24

- Tuesday is the crossover in the VA legislative session. That means the bills that are approved in either house (delegates or senators) must be considered by the other. If a bill is approved by both houses, it goes to the Governor for his signature or veto.
- We do not have a 6 PM service, but you are still invited to the Wrights' to watch the Super Bowl and enjoy some fellowship. We will begin at 6 PM and you are welcome to stay for part of or all the game. Bring a snack to share. Let the Wrights know if you are coming or if you need directions.
- Thank you for your help with the ODACS JV tournament this weekend. When we host a tournament, we always hope we will have a team involved, but either way, we get to keep the proceeds from the concessions. This helps us purchase new equipment for the sports program.
- PeeWee Patch is collecting donations for the Evans Home (children) in Winchester. You can place items in the laundry basket in the vestibule or have them delivered via Amazon. Please screenshot sent items and send to Amber Davidson. <https://www.evanshome.org/materials-wish-list>
- Wednesday, in our mid-week service, we will continue our study entitled "On Good Terms." This week, we will talk about "justification."
- The winter schedule has worked well, and we have gotten positive feedback. We will return to the regular schedule, but are extending the winter schedule through March. We have missed two weeks of classes due to snow. That, in addition to making our Missions' emphasis simpler, is the reason we are extending it.
- Missions Emphasis Month (March)
 - * March 10 Ben Sinclair (BWM Ex. Director)
 - * March 17 Jeff & Leah Cox (Morocco)
 - * March 24 International Missions Banquet
- Academy News and Notes:
 - * Mon-Tue ODACS 1/4 final games TBA
 - * Fri-Sat ODACS A Finals in Great Hope
 - * Feb 19-23 Winter Break - No Preschool or Academy classes

Our church family began 2024 with a challenge from Joshua 24:14-28 that culminated in adopting realistic resolutions. Joshua proclaimed, “As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord,” and he challenged his fellow Israelites to do the same. At the conclusion of the study, I challenged people to evaluate their priorities. Below are the priorities and a few reminders.

1. Prioritize your church.
2. Prioritize reading your Bible.
3. Prioritize prayer. Prayer is talking with your Heavenly Father. When a sinner realizes the consequences of his sin (an eternity apart from God in a place called hell) and responds to the gospel (good news), he is reconciled to God (II Corinthians 5:18-21). His reconciliation is based on Jesus “becoming sin for him.” This means that Jesus has paid the price for one’s disobedience, and the Father no longer sees you as guilty. A believer has the privilege of coming into the presence of his Heavenly Father (in Jesus’ name) and talking with Him. That is prayer in its most basic form. Believers are invited and encouraged to “draw near with confidence [boldness] to the throne of grace.” This is a privilege believers have that the lost do not enjoy. Are you taking advantage of that privilege? Of all the privileges believers enjoy, we perhaps enjoy the benefits of prayer the least. Instead, I trust you will make it a priority by determining to spend time every day talking with your Heavenly Father.
4. Prioritize Christlikeness.
