10:30 AM	Morning Service
6:00 PM	No evening service

NOTE WORTHY—9/29/24

- Thank you for your thoughtfulness in bringing snacks to our memorial service for Dave Channell this past Monday. You allowed us to be an excellent testimony to our guests.
- Next week, our Growth Classes (9:30 AM) are changing. We will have only two classes. The first is a choir class led by Sam Stewart. The second is Pastor Wright's Evangelistic and Bible Study class on Romans (Auditorium).
- (Rescheduled due to rain) Wednesday (10/2) at 5:30 PM, PeeWee Patch and Royalty Club are meeting at the Berryville Park for a Service project. Afterward, they will need their own transportation to the church.
- Voting has changed! You can and probably should vote early since so many electronics are involved. In Virginia, you should be aware of a constitutional amendment and your local races. For example, in the church's district, we are voting on a Commonwealth Attorney and the Board of Supervisors. Pastor Wright recommends Michelle Jones for Commonwealth Attorney and Doug Shaffer for Berryville Board of Supervisors. You will need to investigate the candidates in your races.
- Nursery Workers are needed for the prayer time (9:00-9:30) and the Growth Classes (9:30-10:15). If you would be willing to help, please sign up at the information desk.
- Thursday at 7:00 PM, Emmanuel Baptist Church is hosting a God & Country Rally. These rallies are intended to introduce us to candidates and encourage people to be involved. I encourage you to attend. Some of our friends are holding rallies across the state.
- October 6, after the AM service, we will have a thirty-minute Deacons, Trustees and Wives meeting.
- Academy Notes:
 - * Monday & Tuesday 10:45 AM, Chapel with Mike Pelletier
 - * Friday & Saturday Soccer/Volleyball tournament at Valley in Edinburg
 - * Friday (October 11) Grandparent's Day!

The secondary chapel is at 10:45 AM. Young people not enrolled in the Academy are welcome to attend. Today's schedule is:

- 10:30 AM Morning Service
- Noon Anniversary Lunch

Following the service and clean-up, you are welcome to stay and play volleyball or basketball, depending on the vote of those who participate.

The schedule will be adjusted as the day progresses. We have invited Congressman Ben Cline, Lieutenant Governor Winsome Sears, and Clarke County Sheriff Travis Sumption to attend. The first two will not be able to participate, but Sheriff Sumption will join us for lunch. I have also invited the Clarke County deputies to stop and enjoy a meal. PRAYER REQUESTS

Rachel Langendorfer—Please continue to pray for PNG and my health needs. I have been in Australia now for a couple of weeks to see a neurologist. I do not have a diagnosis for what is going on, but the visit has been helpful in narrowing down things. I will return to the States for a while to recuperate while waiting on some additional lab results. Pray for a peaceful attitude during these unexpected events and for me to continue to grow closer to the Lord.

Jean Moroney—Will be having heart surgery at Fairfax Hospital on 10/29. I will then need to wait 3 months for knee replacement at Winchester Medical Center. I also want to thank everyone for their prayers.

Joe Crane—Pray for my job situation

If you wish to add someone to the prayer list, please email Mrs. DeHaven (carol.dehaven@keystonebaptist.org) no later than 9:00 AM Thursday morning.
