- The evangelism and discipleship study guide for the Growth Class on Romans is available at the information desk. This guide covers Romans 6-8. We will not review this study until the Growth Class on November 17.
- The Patch Clubs are having a Harvest Party on Wednesday, October 30. The Wee Patch will do a costume parade and sing for the service. Costume guidelines will be shared in the Patch Clubs.
- We have a 3-on-3 basketball tournament scheduled for November 9. If you would like to enter a team or know others who would like to enter, let Jenn Brand know. The deadline to sign up is November 2.
- On November 10 we are having a Veteran's lunch. We encourage our veterans to stay after the morning service to enjoy lunch. You are also encouraged to invite other veterans to attend.
- We have another baptism scheduled for November 10 at the beginning of the morning service. Baptism is an outward testimony of an inward decision. If you have trusted Christ and would like to follow the Lord in believer's baptism, talk with Pastor Wright.

Evangelist Matt Galvin

Nov. 10-13

- What are evangelistic or revival meetings? Calling them “special services” would be more accurate since one cannot schedule a revival. Our church family and friends are setting aside extra time to hear God’s word preached.
- Why have special meetings? Once in a while, we need a little extra encouragement and exhortation. People can become lackadaisical. Meetings like this allow the Holy Spirit to encourage or exhort us in our walk with God.
- Who are these meetings for? They are for people who have not arrived in their walk with God. The truth is all of us need to be challenged spiritually, so the meetings are for all of us.
- How can I prepare? First, set aside time to attend the services. Second, begin now to pray for the Lord to use the meetings in our lives. Finally, encourage others (both in the church and outside) to join us.
