NOTE WORTHY—3/23/2025

- Today, Missionaries Stephen and Bonnie Burke are our guests. Keystone Baptist Church has supported the Burkes for more than thirty years. They have recently retired from the field and are visiting their supporting churches.
- Eileen Botha is a full-time student at Maranatha Baptist University. Her sports teams are taking a mission trip to the Grand Cayman Islands. This morning, you will hear more from her about the journey. If you would like to help her, we will take an offering next Sunday.
- Next Sunday, March 30
  - * We will not have the 9:00 AM prayer time next Sunday.
  - * Missionary Joanna Smith (Columbia) will be in our service.
  - * We will collect our Faith Promise.
  - * For the International Missions Banquet, families are asked to bring a main dish plus a dessert or a side dish.
- The new Frontline magazine is at the information desk. This issue focuses on self-deception and substance abuse. An especially valuable article is "Why Marijuana is (Still) Wrong." Answering this question will become more important with the "legalization" of marijuana.
- Easter Sunday is April 20 - four weeks from now. The schedule for the day will change. We will have a 10:00 AM service, but no prayer time or Growth Classes. After the service, we will have an Easter lunch. The church will provide ham, and you are asked to bring dessert and side dishes. We will have more details next Sunday.
- Academy notes:
  - * Congratulations to our students who competed in the ODACS State Fine Arts Competition. The 10-12th first-place winners will compete in the AACCS National Fine Arts Competition at Bob Jones University on April 9-10th.
  - * March 31-April 2 IOWA Achievement Testing (NEW DATE)

Facts

Thank you for a great start to G.R.O.W. Over the past two Sundays, we have gotten organized and have made visits. The organization component has allowed us to affirm that people can use their gifts as God intended. Here are a few encouraging statistics. In the last two weeks:

- We had 45 teens and adults involved. There are a few others who signed up but were not able to attend. That means we should have around 50 people if everyone can attend.
- We had conversations with 32 people (households) who do not currently attend our church. This is the “sowing and reaping” concept. We will not have new contacts unless we take advantage of opportunities.
- We left material in the neighborhood around the church – 45-50 homes. The material invited people to our church services and highlighted our 10:00 AM Easter service.
- Letters were written to the pastors, missionaries, and government officials we prayed for in our morning service.

I say “we” because this is a cooperative effort, and everyone is doing their part. These are just a few of the ideas we are implementing. The goal is to get most of our church family involved. Group one meets again on April 6, and group two on April 27.

3. David Gibbs, III & Carin, National Center for Life & Liberty (NCLL) - legal protections
  - A. Pray that God would guide our actions, provide wisdom, and give our attorneys direction to help us assist churches to mitigate issues they face in their ministries, so - that they can focus on the Gospel ministry they have in their community unburdened by legal issues.
